

Winter Music Information – Notes from Miss Allen

11/12/18

Kindergarten/1st Grade

- Christmas program on November 30th at 6:00pm
- They need to be there by 5:45
- Students need to wear nice Christmas clothes, something they would wear to church on Christmas
- They can practice the songs with my youtube playlist: K-1 Christmas Songs
- All 1st graders will be playing an instrument at some point
- Some kindergarteners are reciting bible verses; they will be worked on at school

2nd/3rd Grade Christmas Musical

- It is called The Christmas Express
- The musical will be November 30th at 7:30, students in the show need to arrive by 7, in costume and makeup
 - There are no huge makeup needs so girls in the cast, Luke 2 readers, soloists, and dancers need to have foundation, mascara, lipstick, and blush
 - Boys who are in the cast, Luke 2 readers, and soloists need to have foundation and mascara
 - People in the chorus and townspeople do not need to wear makeup but they can if they would like
- All main cast, Luke 2 readers, soloists, and dancers need to be at the rest of the remaining rehearsals
- Townspeople do not need to go to after school rehearsals
- Anyone in the choir/chorus and townspeople just needs to wear nice Christmas clothes, something they would wear to church on Christmas
 - Townspeople will need large coats and some sort of small brief case or suit case
- Please make sure you are practicing at home. Here is the link to the tracks (with voices): Christmas Express Songs
- We will meet in the Powerhouse then split off from there

Melody Makers

- Everyone should have their uniforms by now
 - Girls: For each performance you will need to wear your black and white polka dot dress and black dress shoes. Depending on how cold it is you may also wear a black cardigan and/or black, white, or nylon tights.
 - Boys: For each performance you will need to wear black dress pants, your purple button down, your polka dot bow tie, and black dress shoes.
- The first performance is this Sunday!
 - November 11th at 3pm
 - Call time is 2:30pm in the high school cafeteria
 - The performance will be in Lindner Theater
 - Bring your music in a black binder!
- The second performance is December 8th
 - This will be on Fountain Square at 1pm
 - Call time will be 12:30 just in the square
 - Ice skating is free for performers afterward
 - Bring your music in a black binder!
 - Dress warm! It will be chilly out there! As long as what you are wearing fits in the black, white, and purple color scheme it is fine for that day. I would rather

4th Grade Christmas Concert

- December 5th 7:00-8:30
- Students need to meet in the Founder's campus gym by 6:30 dressed and ready to go
- Boys need to wear: Black or brown dress shoes; black, red, or green dress pants; a Christmas colored (green, red, black, white, silver, gold) button down shirt or sweater. Christmas accessories are allowed as long as hats are not so tall as to block the face of the person behind and any lights worn must be able to be on and not flashing.
- Girls need to wear: Black, silver, gold, red, or green dress shoes. Flats preferable but heels are okay as long as they are 2 inches or shorter. On bottom girls can wear black dress pants, or a black skirt that hits right above the knee or longer. If wearing a skirt girls can wear tights or leggings that are black, gray, white, gold, silver, green, or red. Girls can also wear a Christmas-y dress that hits right above the knee or longer. Leggings and tights can also be worn with a dress. Christmas accessories are allowed as long as hats are not so tall as to block the face of the person behind and any lights worn must be able to be on and not flashing.
- 4th graders will perform near the beginning of the concert but will need to stay for the remainder of the concert. Leaving early will affect their grade.
