

Sixth Grade Summer Reading Assignment

Summer 2018

This summer we would like you to read Fish in a Tree by Lynda Mullaly Hunt and complete the Sixth Grade Goal sheet.

You should also read a book of your choice. This book should be at a sixth grade reading level (for example, you may not choose Middle School: Worst Years of my Life or similar novels for this assignment. These types of novels, while at a sixth grade interest level, are not at a sixth grade reading level) and should be at least 150 pages in length. To find a book at a sixth grade reading level, you can use www.scholastic.com/bookwizard to search your book. You want the Guided Reading Level to be somewhere between a W and a Z. (See example image below). During the first week of school, you will be writing and presenting a review of this book for the class. More details on the review will be given when school starts.

The screenshot shows the Scholastic Book Wizard search interface. At the top, there is a search bar with the text "Search by title, author, or keyword". To the right of the search bar is a dropdown menu labeled "GUIDED READING LEVEL" and a red "GO" button. A callout box with an arrow points to this dropdown menu, containing the text "Filter books by Guided Reading Level." Below the search bar, there are filters for "LEVEL", "GENRE", "SUBJECT", and "GRADE". The main content area shows "Filtered By: GRADE LEVEL EQUIVALENT x" and "Showing 30784 Results for All in Books". There are buttons for "SORT BY RELEVANCE" and "Items Per Page: 24 60 120". The results are displayed in a grid of book cards. Each card shows a book cover, title, author, and reading level information. A callout box with an arrow points to the "GUIDED READING LEVEL" field of the first book card, "Bodies from the Ash", which shows a level of "Y". The callout box contains the text "Look for a reading level between W and Z." Other visible book cards include "Write Up A Storm With The Polk Street School" (Level M), "Green Beans and Other Silly Poems" (Level E), "The Latte Rebellion" (Level Z), "A Time Apart", and "BLACK LAGOON".

Filter books by Guided Reading Level.

Look for a reading level between W and Z.
