Needs for Individual Subject Areas

- Art— spiral-bound sketch book (approximately 9 x 12”)
- Band/Strings— black, 1” view binder
- Math 7, Pre-Algebra (Bollman)— three-ring binder with notebook paper; five dividers with tabs; zipper binder pocket

- Algebra, Pre-Algebra (Porter)— two separate, 3-subject (or larger) spiral notebooks (if you can find them with graph paper, that’s preferred); scientific calculator to keep at home (do not buy a graphing calculator – we will instead be using a free graphing calculator app); green or red pens

- Algebra (Cropper)— Three-ring binder with notebook paper
- Christian Studies— Bible (NIV preferred, but not required); Mead composition book; 1.5” three-ring binder; and 10 dividers

- Spanish I— green, 1.5” three-ring binder with 5 dividers; one 70-page spiral notebook; two red marking pens; earbuds with microphone for listening or recording; one pack of white index cards

- Latin I— red, 1.5” three-ring binder with five dividers; 70-page, hole-punched, spiral notebook; composition book

- Chinese I— 1.5” three-ring binder; one box of washable 8 color markers; one glue stick of any brand or color

Revised 5/2019
Language Arts (Conn and Ehlen) – 400 3x5 note cards; 100 4x6 note cards; folder with pockets to keep class handouts; multi-pack of 3”x 3” Post-it Notes, light-colored (so it is easy to read your own writing); one composition notebook (9 ¾ x 7 ½)

World Studies – 3-ring binder capable of holding 200 sheets of paper; no dividers are necessary for the binder

Science – Your choice of system to organize notes handouts and other papers. Most of our work will be completed in OneNote and composition notebooks. However, you will need to keep track of some paper notes and a few handouts.

- 1 – 9 ¾ x 7 ½ inch or larger composition notebook with at least 80 sheets. This composition notebook may be ruled or graph.
- 1 set of colored pencils – basic colors – to be kept in student's locker and used throughout the school year in science class
- 1 glue stick of any size or brand to be given to Mrs. Null at the start of the year

- OneNote Science Lab Notebooks: Students will be using a OneNote Notebook for Science. This is a digital notebook that will be created by Mrs. Null and then shared with the students for individual use. We will begin using the OneNote notebooks during the first week of school, and most every day in science throughout the year, so it is very important that students have technology ready to go! Please refer to the CHCA website for the technology requirements of the BYOD program: https://www.chca-oh.org/my-all-school/byod. If you have questions about what is required, please feel free to email Mrs. Null any time during the summer: Teresa.Null@chca-oh.org.
